

Jean-Michel Vallat, France

2005-2009

Personal Remarks

I have been very impressed by the way the members of the Management Committee (the elected members as well as the administrative staff) spend so much energy to promote teaching of young European neurologists and to establish links with East European colleagues. On the same line, I am very happy to try with others, to build such a network with neurologists from Maghreb and from sub-Saharan African countries.

Jean-Michel Vallat, France